PERSPECTIVES

Where Change Begins

Our dedicated staff develop a partnership with the client, the probation officer and the parent/guardian to assist the client with identifying, examining and addressing their substance use issues.

Our program uses a client's stage of readiness for change to develop a treatment plan that is responsive to the individual's needs and matched to the level of intervention.

Services we provide:

- Assessment
- Individual Counselling
- Consultation

Speak to your Probation Officer about being referred.
